Invitation to the Elli Media Talk at Power2Drive 2025

Elli unveils new battery-buffered fast charger fast charging solution “Flexpole Plus” & announces partnership with UNITI

At Power2Drive 2025 in Munich, Elli – the charging and energy subsidiary of the Volkswagen Group – will present its new “Flexpole Plus” for the first time. This enhanced, battery-buffered fast charging solution features improved energy management and new payment options. In addition, Elli will announce a strategic partnership with German energy association UNITI to help transform gas station infrastructure across the country.

Media Talk Invitation:

- May 7, at 12:15 PM and 2:15 PM
- Exhibition Hall C6, Booth 339
- Accreditation via email: julia.pirlich@elli.eco

Journalists will receive exclusive insights into product innovations and the new partnership with UNITI — a major step toward widespread charging infrastructure directly at fuel stations.
